LOOKING FORWARD

This Extraordinary General Assembly and Congress represent a defining moment for FISpT. The adoption of new statutes, election of leadership, and approval of new members will strengthen our federation as we continue to advance sport for all globally. We look forward to welcoming you to Civitanova Marche for this significant gathering of our international community. The beauty of sport for all lies in its inclusiveness and its power to unite people across borders. We are honored to bring our members together in Italy to build upon this shared vision.

Warm regards,
